

WATER FEES & CHARGES – BUSINESS 2025-26

Non-residential customers should expect to receive a water bill from us on a quarterly basis (unless otherwise specified).

Your business water bills are generally made up of fixed and variable charges:

- Service charges – are annual charges that will be divided evenly across each of your bills for the year, based on the number and size of your service connection, for establishing and operating the water system.
- Water usage charges – are calculated and billed quarterly, based on the amount of water you use.
